BUCCELLATI CAVIAR

CAVIAR

OVER TIME, THERE HAS BEEN REMARKABLY LITTLE CHANGE IN THE TECHNIQUES OF WORKING SILVER BY HAND. EACH PIECE OF HAND-WROUGHT SILVER IS STILL TODAY THE RESULT OF GREAT SKILLS, PAINSTAKING EFFORT AND PRIDE IN ONE'S CRAFT.

THE CAVIAR COLLECTION BY BUCCELLATI RE-INTERPRETS A FAMOUS DESIGN OF THE MAISON, DATING BACK TO THE '30S. SINCE THEN, THE MOTIF COMPOSED OF SMALL CAVIAR BEADS HAS ALWAYS BEEN USED BY BUCCELLATI ON MANY OF ITS JEWELS AND SILVER PIECES, AND NOW IT IS REVAMPED IN A COLLECTION GATHERING VERY INTERESTING SILVER PIECES FOR THE TABLE.

AS A TRADITION OF THE MAISON, THE METAL IS SLIGHTLY HAMMERED AND THERE IS A WHOLE SERIES OF FREQUENTLY USED OBJECTS, SOMETIMES OF DAILY USE: ICE AND BOTTLE BUCKETS, COASTERS, SALT AND PEPPER SHAKERS, FRAMES, GLASSES, AND TRAYS.

A FEW YEARS AGO, BUCCELLATI CREATED A VARIATION WITH MURANO GLASSES BLOWN WITH A SHEET OF SILVER INSIDE, EXPLODING DURING THE GLASS-BLOWING, THUS LEAVING A CASUAL AND ORIGINAL DECORATION ON THE TRANSPARENT SURFACE.

THE PATTERN COMPOSED OF SMALL BEADS WAS SO DEAR TO GIANMARIA THAT, IN 1981, HE CONCEIVED A SPECTACULAR CAVIAR BOWL, THE CUP OF THE MUSES IN JADE AND SAPPHIRES, WHICH IS NOW PART OF THE GIANMARIA BUCCELLATI FOUNDATION COLLECTION.

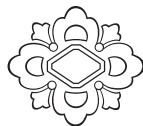

THE BEAUTY OF THE DESIGN, THE EXTRAORDINARY QUALITY OF CRAFTSMANSHIP AND THE INDIVIDUAL CHARACTER OF EACH PIECE ARE THE HALLMARKS OF BUCCELLATI SILVER. NO MATTER HOW LARGE OR SMALL THE PIECE, HAND CRAFTED BUCCELLATI SILVER IS AN ART FORM THAT IS MEANT TO BE USED, ENJOYED AND TREASURED FOR A LIFETIME.
